PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Central Bank of Malaysia Act 1958.

(Proviso omitted).

Interpretation. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Act 372. “bank”, in relation to Malaysia, means a licensed bank as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 or an Islamic bank, and in relation to any country, territory or place outside Malaysia means a person lawfully carrying on therein business corresponding in whole or in part or in substance to “banking business” as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989, or to “Islamic banking business” as defined in the Islamic Banking Act 1983;

“Bank” or “Central Bank” means the Central Bank of Malaysia established by section 3;

“banking institution” means a licensed bank, a licensed merchant bank or a licensed finance company as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 or an Islamic bank;

“Board” means the Board of Directors of the Central Bank;

“certificate of deposit” means a document relating to money, in any currency, which has been deposited with the issuer or some other person, being a document which recognises an obligation to pay a stated amount to bearer or to order, with or without interest, and being a document by the delivery of which, with or without endorsement, the right to receive that stated amount, with or without interest, is transferable;

“Deputy Governor” means any Deputy Governor of the Central Bank;

“director” means a director appointed under section 10, and includes the Governor or Deputy Governor;

“Governor” means the Governor of the Central Bank;

“investment account liabilities” in relation to an Islamic bank means the deposit liabilities at that bank in respect of funds placed by a depositor with that bank for a fixed period of time under an agreement to share the profits or losses of that bank on the investment of such funds;

Act 276. “Islamic bank” means a bank licensed under the Islamic Banking Act 1983;

“licensed institution” has the meaning assigned thereto in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989;

“Minister” means the Minister charged with the responsibility for finance;

“other deposit liabilities” in relation to a banking institution other than an Islamic bank means deposit liabilities at that banking institution other than savings account, sight and time liabilities and deposit liabilities from another banking institution or the Central Bank; and in relation to an Islamic bank means deposit liabilities at that bank other than savings account, investment account, sight and time liabilities and deposit liabilities from another banking institution or the Central Bank;

“other financial institution” means—

- Act 372.
- (a) any licensed discount house, licensed money-broker, or scheduled institution, or representative office, as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989;
 - (b) any non-scheduled institution, as defined in the aforesaid Act, which is engaged in the “provision of finance” as this expression is defined in that Act; or
 - (c) such other person as may be specified by the Bank, from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette;

“record of balance of payments” means a record of such economic and financial transactions of Malaysia, whether direct or indirect, howsoever, wheresoever, or by whosoever, made, in relation to countries, territories or places outside Malaysia as the Bank may, from time to time, determine for the purpose of being included in such record;

“savings account liabilities” in relation to a banking institution means the total deposits at that banking institution which normally require the presentation of passbooks or such other documents in lieu of passbooks as approved by the Central Bank for the deposit or withdrawal of monies;

“sight liabilities” in relation to a bank means the total deposits at that bank which are repayable on demand, but does not include savings account liabilities or the deposits of any other banking institution or of the Central Bank at that bank;

“Syariah Advisory Council” means the Syariah Advisory Council established under subsection 16B(1); Act A1213.

“time liabilities” in relation to a banking institution means the total deposits at that banking institution which are repayable otherwise than on demand, but does not include savings account liabilities or the deposits of any other banking institution or of the Central Bank at that banking institution.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT, CAPITAL AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE BANK

- Establishment of Bank. 3. There shall be established a bank, to be called "Bank Negara Malaysia" or, in English, "Central Bank of Malaysia", which shall be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its own name.
- Principal objects of Bank. 4. The principal objects of the Bank shall be—
- (a) to issue currency in Malaysia and to keep reserves safeguarding the value of the currency;
 - (b) to act as a banker and a financial adviser to the Government;
 - (c) to promote monetary stability and a sound financial structure;
 - (ca) to promote the reliable, efficient and smooth operation of national payment and settlement systems and to ensure that the national payment and settlement systems policy is directed to the advantage of Malaysia; and
 - (d) to influence the credit situation to the advantage of Malaysia.
- Offices of the Bank. 5. (1) The Bank shall have its Head Office in Kuala Lumpur.
- (2) The Bank may open branches and appoint agents and correspondents within and without Malaysia.
- Capital. 6. (1) The authorized capital of the Bank shall be two hundred million ringgit.
- (2) Twenty million ringgit of the authorized capital shall be subscribed and paid up by the Government on the establishment of the Bank.
- (3) The paid up portion of the authorized capital may be increased by such amount as the Minister may approve from time to time and the Government shall subscribe and pay the amount of the increase to the Bank:

Provided that the payment of the increase in capital may be made by way of such transfers from the General Reserve Fund as the Minister may from time to time approve.

General Reserve Fund. 7. (1) There shall be a General Reserve Fund of the Bank.

(2) At the end of each financial year, the net profit of the Bank for that year shall be determined after allowing for the expenses of operation and after provision has been made for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contributions to staff and pension funds and such other contingencies as are usually provided for by banks.

(3) The net profit of the Bank shall be dealt with as follows:

- (a) such amount as the Minister, after consultation with the Board, so determines shall be placed to the credit of the General Reserve Fund; and
- (b) the remainder shall be paid to the Government:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of any year at the end of which the General Reserve Fund is less than half the paid up capital of the Bank, the whole of the net profit shall be credited to the General Reserve Fund; and
- (ii) in the case of any year at the end of which the General Reserve Fund is not less than half the paid up capital of the Bank, but less than twice the paid up capital of the Bank, not less than thirty per centum of the net profit shall be credited to the General Reserve Fund.

Board of Directors. 8. (1) There shall be a Board of Directors constituted as provided in this section, which shall be responsible for the policy and general administration of the affairs and business of the Bank.

(2) The Board of Directors of the Bank shall consist of—

- (a) the Governor;
- (b) not more than three Deputy Governors; and

(c) not less than five but not more than eight directors appointed under section 10.

(3) The Governor or, during any period of his absence or inability to act from illness or any other cause, any Deputy Governor so designated by the Governor, shall be entrusted with the day-to-day administration of the Bank, and may, subject as is expressly stated in this Act, give decisions and exercise all powers and do all acts which may be exercised or done by the Bank.

(4) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall be answerable to the Board for their acts and decisions.

(5) In the event of the absence or inability to act of the Governor or any Deputy Governor during his term of office the Minister may appoint a person to discharge the duties of such office during the period of such absence or inability; and while so acting the person so appointed by the Minister shall act as an ex-officio member of the Board.

Governor and Deputy Governor. 9. (1) The Governor shall be appointed by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong and the Deputy Governors by the Minister.

(2) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall each be appointed for a term not exceeding five years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The Governor and Deputy Governor shall devote the whole of their professional time to the service of the Bank and while holding office shall not occupy any other office or employment whether remunerated or not:

Note.

Provided that they may if so appointed with the approval of the Minister—

- (a) act as members of any committee or commission appointed by the Government to enquire into any matter affecting currency, banking, economic or financial matters in Malaysia;
- (b) become directors, governors or members of the board, by whatever name called, of any international bank or international monetary authority to which the Government shall have adhered or given support or approval;
- (c) become directors of any corporation in Malaysia in which the Bank may participate under section 30 (1)(j);
- (d) become directors or members of the board of management, by whatever name called, of any statutory authority or of any company as defined in section 4 (1) of the Companies Act 1965.

(4) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be provided for in their respective letters of appointment. Note.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, or in any other provision of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor or the Deputy Governors to be appointed by any written law to exercise such powers, discharge such duties, and perform such functions as may be specified in or under such written law, and to be conferred by such written law with such title of office in relation thereto as may be specified in such written law.

Appointment of directors. 10. (1) The directors referred to in section 8 (2) (c) shall be appointed by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

(2) The directors appointed under subsection (1) shall be persons of standing and experience in affairs, and as directors of the Bank shall not act as delegates on the Board from any commercial, financial, agricultural, industrial or other interests with which they may be connected:

Provided that the said prohibition shall not extend to any directors holding or for the time being acting in the office of Secretary General to the Treasury or Deputy Secretary General to the Treasury.

(3) A director appointed under subsection (1) shall hold office for a term not exceeding three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(4) The directors appointed under subsection (1) shall be paid by the Bank such remuneration and allowances as may be prescribed by the Minister.

Disqualification of directors. 11. (1) No person shall be appointed or shall remain as Governor, Deputy Governor or other director of the Bank who—

(a) is or becomes a member of the Senate or House of Representatives or any Legislative Assembly;

Act 372. (b) is or becomes an "officer" or, subject to section 9 (3), a "director" (as those words are defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989) of any banking institution or other financial institution; or

(c) is or becomes a public officer:

Provided that one of the directors appointed under section 10 may be the person holding the office of Secretary General to the Treasury or Deputy Secretary General to the Treasury, and notwithstanding section 10 (3) any director so appointed shall remain a member of the Board for so long as he holds the office of Secretary General to the Treasury or Deputy Secretary General to the Treasury, as the case may be, or for such lesser time as may be provided in his letter of appointment.

(2) The Yang di-Pertuan Agong may terminate the appointment of the Governor, or any other director if he—

- (a) resigns his office;
- (b) becomes of unsound mind or incapable of carrying out his duties;
- (c) becomes bankrupt or suspends payment or compounds with his creditors;
- (d) is convicted by a court of law in Malaysia of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than two years, or of any offence involving dishonesty, and has not received a free pardon;
- (e) is guilty of serious misconduct in relation to his duties;
- (f) is absent, except on leave granted by the Minister, from all meetings of the Board held during two consecutive months or during any three months in any period of twelve months;
- (g) fails to comply with his obligations under section 14.

(3) The Minister may terminate the appointment of any Deputy Governor on the grounds specified in subsection (2).

Vacancies in the office of Governor or Deputy Governor or of another director. 12. If the Governor or any Deputy Governor or any other director dies or resigns or otherwise vacates his office before the expiry of the term for which he has been appointed another person may be appointed by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, or in the case of a Deputy Governor, by the Minister, for the unexpired period of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.

Meetings and acts of the Board. 13. (1) The Governor, or in his absence any Deputy Governor so designated by the Governor, shall be the chairman of the Board.

(2) The chairman of the Board shall summon meetings as often as may be required but not less frequently than once in each month.

(3) At every meeting of the Board a quorum shall consist of four directors, and decisions shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes of the directors present and voting:

Provided that in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote.

Director's interest in contract to be made known. 14. (1) A director who is directly or indirectly interested in a contract made, or proposed to be made, by the Bank shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which he is present after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

(2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board and, after the disclosure, the director—

(a) shall not be present at, or take part in, any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to that contract; and

(b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Board for any such deliberation or decision.

(3) No act or proceeding of the Board shall be questioned on the ground of the contravention by a member of the Board of this section.

Officers and employees of the Bank. 15. (1) The Bank may appoint such officers and employees as it considers to be necessary for the efficient conduct of the business of the Bank.

(2) Officers and employees of the Bank shall hold office for such period or periods, receive such salaries and allowances, and be subject to such other terms and conditions of service as may be determined by the Board.

(3) The Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, out of the funds of the Bank establish and maintain a pension and provident fund for its officers and employees and their dependents.

In this subsection, the expression "officers" includes the Governor and Deputy Governors.

(4) Where officers or employees of the Bank have been seconded or transferred to the service of the Bank from or have previously been in the service of the Federal or a State Government or other public authority approved by the Board, the appointments of those officers or employees shall, subject to any Federal or State law, be made in accordance with such arrangements as to pensions and allowance for previous service as the Board may determine.

(5) The Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, out of the funds of the Bank, create and maintain a trust account to be called "the Bank Negara Malaysia Staff Welfare Account" for the benefit of its officers and employees, including their dependants.

(6) The Bank Negara Malaysia Staff Welfare Account shall be utilised for such purposes conducive to the welfare of the officers and employees of the Bank, including their dependants, as may from time to time be provided in trust directions to be issued by the Board with the approval of the Minister, and such directions may provide for the manner and the procedure for the making of the grants, loans or other payments from such Account.

Preservation of secrecy. 16. Without prejudice to section 16A, except for the purpose of the performance of his duties or the exercis of his functions or when lawfully required to do so by any court or under any law, no director, officer, or employee of the Bank, shall disclose to any person any information relating to the affairs of the Central Bank or of a banking institution or other financial institution or of a customer of the Central Bank or of a banking institution or other financial institution which he has acquired in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions. [sic]

Bank's power to report suspected offence. 16A. (1) Where the Bank in the course of the exercise of any of its powers, or the discharge of any of its duties, or the performance of any of its functions, under this Act, the Exchange Control Act 1953, the Insurance Act 1963, the Islamic Banking Act 1983, the Takaful Act 1984, the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989, the Money-Changing Act 1998, or under any other written law whatsoever, suspects any person to have committed any offence under this Act, or any of the aforesaid Acts, or any other written law whatsoever, it shall be lawful for the Bank to give information of such commission to a police officer in charge of a police station or to any other police officer, or to convey any or all information in relation to such offence to any banking institution, or to any other financial institution or other person affected by such offence, or to any authority or person having power to investigate under, or enforce, the provision of the law under which the offence is suspected by the Bank to have been committed. Act A1010.

(2) Subsection (1) shall have full force and effect, notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith, or contrary thereto, in the Act and the Acts mentioned in subsection (1) or in any other written law.

Establishment of Syariah Advisory Council

16B. (1) The Bank may establish a Syariah Advisory Council, which shall be the authority for the ascertainment of Islamic law for the purposes of Islamic banking business, takaful business, Islamic financial business, Islamic development financial business, or any other business which is based on Syariah principles and is supervised and regulated by the Bank.

* Note
Act A1213.

(2) The Syariah Advisory Council shall consist of such members as may be appointed by the Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank, from amongst persons who have knowledge or experience or both in the Syariah and also—

- (a) banking;
- (b) finance;
- (c) law; or
- (d) any other related discipline.

(3) If a judge of the High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Federal Court, or a judge of the Syariah Appeal Court of any State or Federal Territory, is to be appointed under subsection (2), such appointment shall not be made except—

- (a) in the case of a judge of the High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Federal Court, after consultation with the Chief Justice; and
- (b) in the case of a judge of the Syariah Appeal Court of any State or Federal Territory, after consultation with the Chief Syariah Judge of the respective State or Federal Territory, as the case may be.

(4) The Syariah Advisory Council shall have such functions as may be determined by the Bank and shall determine its own procedure.

(5) The members of the Syariah Advisory Council shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be determined by the Board from the funds of the Bank.

(6) Unless the Bank otherwise approves in writing, no member of the Syariah Advisory Council shall become a member of any Syariah advisory body of, or act as a Syariah consultant or Syariah advisor of, or assume any position or office to such effect for, or occupy any office or employment whether remunerated or not with, any banking institution or other financial institution.

(7) The Bank shall consult the Syariah Advisory Council on Syariah matters relating to Islamic banking business, takaful business, Islamic financial business, Islamic development financial business, or any other business which is based on Syariah principles and is supervised and regulated by the Bank, and may issue written directives in relation to those businesses in accordance with the advice of the Syariah Advisory Council.

(8) Where in any proceedings relating to Islamic banking business, takaful business, Islamic financial business, Islamic development financial business, or any other business which is based on Syariah principles and is supervised and regulated by the Bank before any court or arbitrator any question arises concerning a Syariah matter, the court or the arbitrator, as the case may be, may—

- (a) take into consideration any written directives issued by the Bank pursuant to subsection (7); or
- (b) refer such question to the Syariah Advisory Council for its ruling.

(9) Any ruling made by the Syariah Advisory Council pursuant to a reference made under paragraph (8)(b) shall, for the purposes of the proceedings in respect of which the reference was made—

- (a) if the reference was made by a court, be taken into consideration by the court in arriving at its decision; and
- (b) if the reference was made by an arbitrator, be binding on the arbitrator.

(10) The Bank may establish a secretariat and such other committees as it considers necessary to assist the Syariah Advisory Council in the performance of its functions and may appoint any of the officers of the Bank or any other person to be a member of the secretariat or any of such committees.

(11) Any request for consultation or reference for a ruling of the Syariah Advisory Council under this Act or any other law shall be submitted to the secretariat.

(12) In this section—

- (a) “Islamic banking business” has the meaning assigned thereto in the Islamic Banking Act 1983;
- (b) “Islamic financial business” means financial business whose aims and operations do not involve any element which is not approved by Syariah; and
- (c) “takaful business” has the meaning assigned thereto in the Takaful Act 1984.

* Notwithstanding the introduction of subsections 16B(2) and (3) into the Act by subsection (1), the existing Syariah Advisory Council which was appointed on 2 August 1996 is deemed to have been validly appointed and shall continue to perform the functions for which it was appointed until a Syariah Advisory Council is appointed in accordance with subsections 16B(2) and (3) of the Act, and references to the Syariah Advisory Council in subsections 16B(1), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12) of the Act shall be construed as references to the existing Syariah Advisory Council.

Any directive, notice or circular issued or any act or thing done by the Bank in relation to Islamic banking business, Islamic financial business, takaful business, Islamic development financial business, or any other business which is based on Syariah principles and is supervised and regulated by the Bank, in accordance with the advice of the existing Syariah Advisory Council referred to in subsection (2) is deemed to have been validly issued or done.

Remuneration not to be related to profits. 17. No salary, fee, wage, or other remunerations, or allowance, paid by the Bank shall be computed by reference to the profits of the Bank.

PART III

CURRENCY

Unit of currency. 18. (1) The unit of currency in Malaysia shall be the ringgit, which shall be divided into one hundred sen.

(2) Upon the coming into force of this section, every contract, sale, payment, bill, note, instrument and security for money and every transaction, dealing, matter and thing whatsoever relating to money or involving the payment of, or the liability to pay, any money which but for this subsection would have been deemed to be made, executed, entered into, done and had for, in and in relation to Malaysian dollars shall be deemed instead to be made, executed, entered into, done and had for, in and in relation to ringgit.

Parity. 19. (1) The parity of the ringgit shall be determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank in terms either of the currency or currencies of other members of the International Monetary Fund, the Special Drawing

Right, the common denominator prescribed by the International Monetary Fund under paragraph I of Schedule C to the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, or any other denominator consistent with the obligations of Malaysia under Article IV and Schedule C to the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund:

Provided that if and when the Bank notifies the International Monetary Fund of the parity of the ringgit upon the International Monetary Fund deciding under the Articles of Agreement to introduce a widespread system of exchange arrangements based on stable but adjustable par values, such parity shall be published in the Gazette and shall take effect accordingly.

(2) The parity of the ringgit may be changed to such an extent as the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank may determine.

(3) Any change under subsection (2) shall be published in the Gazette and shall take effect accordingly in substitution of the parity gazetted under subsection (1).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Minister may decide on the recommendation of the Bank that it is necessary and expedient for Malaysia not to determine a parity for the ringgit, but instead to apply any exchange arrangement for the ringgit that is not inconsistent with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, including, but not limited to, the severing of the parity of the ringgit to any currency or currencies or any denominator.

Right to issue bank notes and coin. 20. The Bank shall have the sole right of issuing notes and coin throughout Malaysia and neither the Government nor the Government of any State nor any public authority, or banking institution or other financial institution, or other institution or persons shall issue currency notes, bank notes or coin or any documents or tokens payable to bearer on demand being documental tokens which, in the opinion of the Bank, are likely to pass as legal tender.

Power to buy and sell Malaysian currency. 21. The Bank shall at its discretion buy and sell Malaysian currency against gold or other currency eligible for inclusion in the reserve of external assets specified under section 28:

Provided that the rate of exchange quoted for any such transaction shall be consistent with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund.

Printing of notes,
minting of coins
and issue of notes
and coins.

22. The Bank shall —

- (a) arrange for the printing of notes and the minting of coins;
- (b) issue, re-issue and exchange notes and coins at the Bank's offices and at such agencies as the Bank may, from time to time, establish or appoint;
- (c) arrange for the safe custody of unissued stocks of currency and for the preparation, safe custody and destruction of plates and paper for the printing of notes and of dies for the minting of coins.

Denominations
and forms of notes
and coins.

23. (1) Notes and coins issued by the Bank—

- (a) shall be in such denominations of the ringgit or fractions thereof as shall be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank;
- (b) shall be of such forms and designs and bear such devices as shall be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank.

(2) The standard weight and composition of coins issued by the Bank and the amount of remedy and variation shall be determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank.

Legal tender.

24. (1) Notes issued by the Bank shall, if such notes are not defaced, be legal tender in Malaysia at their face value for the payment of any amount.

(2) Coins issued by the Bank shall, if such coins have not been tampered with, be legal tender in Malaysia at their face value—

- (a) for the payment of any amount in the case of coins of the denomination exceeding one ringgit;
- (b) for the payment of an amount not exceeding ten ringgit in the case of coins of the denomination of fifty sen and one ringgit; and
- (c) for the payment of an amount not exceeding two ringgit in the case of coins of the denomination of less than fifty sen.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) the Bank shall have power, on giving not less than three months' notice in the Gazette of its intention to do so, to call in any of its notes and coins on payment of the face value thereof; and any such notes or coins with respect to which notice has been given under this subsection shall, on the expiration of the notice, cease to be legal tender.

Coins tampered with or notes defaced. 25. A coin shall be deemed to have been tampered with if the coin has been impaired, diminished or lightened otherwise than by fair wear and tear or has been defaced by stamping, engraving or piercing, whether the coin shall or shall not have been thereby diminished or lightened, and a note shall be deemed to have been defaced if any word, sign, symbol, drawing, caricature, or other thing whatsoever, has been written, inscribed, or in any other manner or by any other means whatsoever has been shown on its surface, or if it is torn, marred, burnt, injured, spoilt or otherwise howsoever mutilated.

Withdrawal of notes and coins and their disposal. 26. (1) The Bank may take all such steps as it may deem appropriate to withdraw from circulation coins which are worn or which have been tampered with, or note which are defaced, or unfit for circulation, and may destroy, deal with or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as may be directed in writing by the Governor or any Deputy Governor or other officer of the Bank as may be authorised in writing by either the Governor or any Deputy Governor.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) as to destruction or disposal of, or dealing with, notes and coins shall apply to notes and coins which have been called in and will cease to be, or have ceased to be, legal tender under section 24 (3).

Refund of lost or imperfect notes or coins. 27. (1) No person shall be entitled to recover from the Bank the value of any lost, stolen or imperfect note or coin or any coin that has been tampered with or any note which is defaced.

(2) The circumstances in which, and the conditions and limitations subject to which, the value of lost, stolen, or imperfect notes or coins or coins that have been tampered with or notes which are defaced may be refunded as an act of grace shall be within the absolute discretion of the Bank.

Restriction on the use of photographs, 27A. Except with the permission of the Bank, no person shall, in any size, scale or colour, use any photograph of or any drawing or design resembling any note or coin or drawing or design of note or coin in advertisements, etc. part thereof, in any advertisement or on any merchandise or products which that person manufactures, sells, circulates or otherwise distributes.

PART IV

RESERVE OF EXTERNAL ASSETS

Reserve of external assets. 28. It shall be the duty of the Bank to maintain at all times a reserve of external assets to meet its obligations under this Act, consisting of all or any of the following:

- (a) gold coin or bullion;
- (b) notes, coin, bank balances and money at call in such country or countries as may be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board;
- (c) Treasury bills of such government or governments as may be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board of a maturity not exceeding one year;
- (d) bill of exchange bearing at least two good signatures and drawn on and payable at such place or places as may be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board and having a maturity not exceeding three months (exclusive of days of grace);

(4) The Bank shall maintain at all times for such period or periods as it may deem appropriate, a record of balance of payments containing such information, statistics and particulars as it may from time to time determine, for the purpose of carrying out the principal objects of the Bank under section 4 and discharging its duties and functions under this Act.

(5) For the purpose of maintaining the record of balance of payments, the Bank shall have the power to require in writing at any time any person which, in the opinion of the Bank, has in its possession or under its custody or control, or has within its capacity to obtain, compile or submit, any information, statistics or document relating to the record of balance of payments—

- (a) to submit such information, statistics or document to the Bank, within such period, at such intervals, in such manner, in such form and in writing or by means of any visual recording (whether of still or moving images) or any sound recording, or any electronic, magnetic, mechanical or other recording whatsoever, on any substance, material, thing or article as the Bank may specify in the requirement; or
- (b) to attend before an officer of the Bank to answer any enquiries in relation to such information, statistics or document.

(6) Any—

- (a) information, statistics or document submitted pursuant to any requirement under paragraph (a); or
- (b) answer to any enquiry pursuant to any requirement under paragraph (b), of subsection (5), shall be true, correct and complete, and shall not be designed, directly or indirectly, to mislead the Bank in relation to such requirement.

(7) The Bank may publish in any manner it deems fit, consolidated statements of all or any part of the record of balance of payments, aggregating the information, statistics or particulars in documents received or obtained under subsection (5), provided that such publication shall not in any manner lead to the identification of any person to which such information, statistics or particulars relate.

(8) Notwithstanding section 16A or any other written law, but without prejudice to subsection (7), any information, statistics or document received or obtained by the Bank under subsection (5) shall be used by the Bank for the purposes of maintaining the record of balance of payments, carrying out its principal objects under section 4 and discharging its duties and functions under this Act, and shall not be disclosed by the Bank to any person other than the Governor, Deputy Governors, or an officer or employee of the Bank for all or any of the aforesaid purposes.

(9) For the purposes of giving effect to subsections (4), (5) and (6), the Bank may make such regulations under section 54 as it deems necessary or expedient.

(2) The Bank may grant, donate, loan or advance any sum of money as may be necessary for the establishment or operations of a body corporate established under subsection (1) and create and manage a fund to meet the expenses of such body corporate.

* All things done by the Bank or any person or authority on behalf of the Bank in the preparation of and towards the proper implementation of the provision of section 30A of this Act as introduced by subsection (1), and any expenditure incurred in relation to such implementation, in anticipation of the enactment of section 30A of this Act shall be deemed to have been authorized by this Act.

Business which Bank may not transact. 31. The Bank may not—

- (a) engage in trade or otherwise have a direct interest in any commercial, agricultural, industrial or any other undertaking except—
 - (i) as provided in section 30 (1) (j); or
 - (ii) in the course of the satisfaction of debts due to the Bank: provided that any such interest shall be disposed of at the earliest suitable opportunity;
- (b) grant loans upon security of any shares;
- (c) except as provided in section 30 (1) (j) and (oo) (i), purchase the shares of any corporation, including the shares of any banking institution or other financial institution which is a company;
- (d) except as provided in sections 33, 42 and 49, grant unsecured advances or advances secured otherwise than as laid down in section 30 (1) (ff), (fff), (ffff), (fffff), (k) and (l):

Provided that in the event of any debt due to the Bank becoming in the opinion of the Bank endangered, the Bank may secure such debt on any immovable or movable property of the debtor and may acquire such property, which shall, however, be resold at the earliest suitable moment;

- (e) purchase, acquire or lease immovable property except in accordance with the proviso to paragraph (d) and except so far as the Bank shall consider necessary or expedient for the provision, or future provision, of business premises for the Bank and its agencies and any Clearing Houses established pursuant to section 30 (1)(w) and of residences for the Governor, Deputy Governors, officers and employees and of amenities for the promotion of the welfare of officers and employees:

Provided that where any immovable property purchased, acquired or leased by the Bank for any of the said purposes, is not immediately required for those purposes, or where any immovable property referred to in the proviso to paragraph (d) cannot be immediately resold, it shall be lawful for the Bank to grant leases or tenancies of such immovable property for such period as the property is not required for the said purposes or cannot be resold, as the case may be;

- (f) draw or accept bills payable otherwise than on demand;
- (g) allow the renewal or substitution of maturing bills of exchange purchased, discounted or rediscounted by or pledged with the Bank:

Provided that in exceptional circumstances the Bank may authorize one renewal or one substitution only in either case of not more than fifty per centum of the original amount of any such bill for a period not exceeding ninety days;

- (h) accept for discount, or as security for an advance made by the Bank, bills or notes signed by members of the Board or by the Bank's officers or employees, except in relation to any loan made by the Bank under section 49.

Loans to, and acquisition of, banking and other financial institutions. 31A. (1) Notwithstanding section 31, where the Bank considers that a licensed institution, or an institution in respect of which an order has been made by the Minister under section 24 (1) or 93 (1) of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 is—
Act 372.

- (i) likely to become unable to meet its obligations; or
- (ii) about to suspend payment,

the Bank may, with the concurrence of the Minister—

- (a) grant loans to such institution against the security of its own or any shares or any other sufficient security;
- (b) grant loans to any licensed institution to purchase any shares or the whole or any part of the properties and liabilities of such institution; or
- (c) purchase any shares of such institution for the purpose of controlling the business of such institution.

Act 372. (2) For the purposes of this section, section 31B, section 78 of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989, there shall be established an Advisory Panel to advise the Minister on matters falling within the purview of those provisions for which the concurrence or consent of the Minister is required.

(3) The Advisory Panel shall consist of such persons as may be appointed by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank.

(4) The persons appointed under subsection (3) shall be paid by the Bank such remuneration and allowances as may be specified in writing by the Minister.

Power of Bank to make an order in respect of a deposit-taker to protect the interests of its depositors, etc.

31B. (1) The Bank may, with the concurrence of the Minister, if it is satisfied that—

* Note

- (a) a deposit-taker—
 - (i) has become, or is likely to become, unable to meet all or any of its obligations; or
 - (ii) is about to suspend, or has suspended, payment to any extent; and
- (b) it is consequently necessary to take action under this section for the purpose of—
 - (i) securing or maintaining the financial stability of Malaysia; and
 - (ii) the protection of the interests of depositors in the deposit-taker, by order published in the Gazette, make all or any of the following provisions:

- (aa) provide for the Bank—
 - (i) to purchase any shares of a licensed finance company;

- (ii) to make an advance of its funds to a licensed finance company, repayable with or without interest, for the purpose of being utilised by the licensed finance company solely to acquire the property and liabilities of the deposit-taker, or the interests of the depositors in the deposit-taker; or
- (iii) to make an advance of its funds to a bank incorporated in Malaysia, repayable with or without interest, to be utilised by the bank solely to acquire a licensed finance company which, thereafter, shall acquire the property and liabilities of the deposit-taker or the interests of the depositors in the deposit-taker; and

(bb) provide for the depositors, in exchange for their interest in the deposit-taker, to be given shares in the licensed finance company referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii), or (iii), as the case may be, of paragraph (aa).

(2) An order under subsection (1) shall not be made by the Bank unless—

- (a) the consent of the deposit-taker has been obtained;
- (b) the available unencumbered assets of the deposit-taker are insufficient to meet its deposit-liabilities; and
- (c) the consents of the depositors have been obtained, except where, on the application of the Bank to the High Court by way of ex parte originating summons, it is ordered by the High Court that such consents be dispensed with:

Provided that the above provisions shall not apply to any amendment or revocation of the original order made under subsection (1).

(3) Where the Bank makes an order under subsection (1), order shall constitute sufficient authority for the Bank or any other person named or described in the order to do all or any of the acts or things as may be required or authorised to be done by the Bank or such person under the terms of the order, and to do all other acts and things as may be reasonably incidental to, or reasonably necessary to be done, to give effect to such terms. [sic]

(4) For the purpose only of giving effect to the terms of an order under subsection (1), the Bank may authorise the licensed finance company referred to in the order by virtue of subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), as the case may be, of subsection (1) (aa), to—

- (a) undertake a reconstruction exercise;
- (b) purchase and acquire the property and liabilities of the deposit-taker and the interests of the depositors in the deposit-taker;
- (c) enter into such arrangement, agreement or transaction with the deposit-taker or its depositors as may be necessary, expedient or desirable; or
- (d) do any other act or thing which is not inconsistent with the order, which, in the opinion of the Bank, is required to be done to ensure the successful implementation of the order.

(5) An order under subsection (1) may provide for all or any of the following:

- (a) the date on and from which the order shall take effect, being a date earlier or later than the date of the making of the order (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the transfer date”);
- (b) the vesting of any property held by the transferor either alone or jointly with any other person in the transferee either alone or, as the case may be, jointly with such other person, on and from the transfer date, in the same capacity, upon the trusts, and with and subject to the powers, provisions and liabilities applicable thereto respectively;
- (c) for any existing instrument, whether in the form of a deed, will or otherwise, or order of any court, under or by virtue of which any property became vested in the transferor, to be construed and to have effect as if for any reference therein to the transferor there were substituted a reference to the transferee;
- (d) for any existing contract or agreement to which the transferor was a party to have effect as if the transferee had been a party thereto instead of the transferor;
- (e) for any account between the transferor and its customer, including a depositor, to become an account between the transferee and the customer or depositor, subject to the conditions and incidents as theretofore, and for such accounts to be deemed for all purposes to be a single continuing account; [sic]
- (f) for any existing instruction, order, direction, mandate, power of attorney, authority, undertaking or consent, whether or not in relation to an account, given to the transferor, either alone or jointly with another person, to have effect, in respect of anything due to be done as if given to the transferee either alone or, as the case may be, jointly with the other person;

- (g) for any negotiable instrument or order for payment of money drawn on, or given to, or accepted or endorsed by, the transferor or payable at the place of business of the transferor, whether so drawn, given, accepted or endorsed before, on, or after, the transfer date, to have the same effect on and from the transfer date, as if it had been drawn on, or given to, or accepted or endorsed by, the transferee or were payable at the place of business of the transferee;
- (h) for the custody of any document, goods or thing held by the transferor as bailee immediately before the transfer date to pass to the transferee and the rights and obligations of the transferor under any contract of bailment relating to any such document, goods or thing to be transferred to the transferee;
- (i) for any security held immediately before the transfer date by the transferor, or by a nominee of, or trustee for, the transferor, as security for the payment or discharge of any liability of any persons to be held by the transferee or, as the case may be, to be held by that nominee or trustee as the nominee of, or trustee for, the transferee, and to the extent of those liabilities, be available to the transferee as security for the payment or discharge of those liabilities; and where any such security extends to future advances or future liabilities, to be held by, and to be available as aforesaid to, the transferee as security for future advances by, and future liabilities to, the transferee in the same manner in all respects as future advances by, or future liabilities to, the transferor were secured thereby immediately before the transfer date;
- (j) where any right or liability of the transferor is transferred to the transferee, for the transferee to have the same rights, powers and remedies (and in particular the same rights and powers as to taking or resisting legal proceedings or making or resisting applications to any authority) for ascertaining, protecting or enforcing that right or resisting that liability as if it had at all times been a right or liability of the transferee, including those rights or liabilities in respect of any legal proceedings or applications to any authority pending immediately before the transfer date by or against the transferor;

- (k) any judgement or award obtained by or against the transferor and not fully satisfied before the transfer date to be enforceable by or, as the case may be, against the transferee; and
- (l) for all and every such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary, expedient, or desirable, to give full force and effect to the terms of the order.

(6) Where the order under subsection (1) provides for the transfer of any property vested in or held by, or any liabilities suffered by, the transferor, either alone or jointly with any other person, then, by virtue of the order, that property and those liabilities shall, subject to subsection (8), on and from the transfer date, become vested in or held by, or be suffered by, the transferee, either alone or jointly with such other person, as the case may be.

(7) The Bank shall, within thirty days of the publication of an order in the Gazette under subsection (1), lodge a copy of the order with—

- (a) the Registrar of Companies;
- (b) the Registrar General of Co-operative Societies in West Malaysia, or the respective Registrar of Co-operative Societies in Sabah or Sarawak, or the Registrar of Farmers' Organizations, or the Registrar of Fishermen's Associations, as may be relevant, where the deposit-taker to which the order relates is a co-operative society;
- (c) any other authority, person, or body which is responsible for the registration, licensing or otherwise of the deposit-taker to which the order relates; and
- (d) the appropriate authority, if any, concerned with the registration or recording of dealings in any movable property, or interest in any movable property, transferred pursuant to the order.

(8) Any provision in any order under subsection (1) providing for the transfer of any alienated land, or any share or interest in any alienated land, to any person shall not have effect unless the transferee makes an application to the High Court by way of an ex parte originating summons for an order of the High Court vesting such alienated land, or such share or interest in alienated land, in the transferee, pursuant to the order under subsection (1), and where the High Court grants an order to vest the same in the transferee—

Act 56/65. (a) the High Court shall, where the alienated land is in West Malaysia, pursuant to section 420 (2) of the National Land Code, cause a copy of such order to be served on the Registrar of Titles or the Land Administrator, as the case may be, immediately after the making of such order so that the Registrar of Titles or the Land Administrator, as the case may be, gives effect to subsections (2), (3) and (4) of the said section 420;

Sabah Cap. 68. (b) where the alienated land is in Sabah, the transferee shall, as soon as practicable after such order has been made, present such order to the Registrar of Titles for registration of the transferee as the registered owner of such alienated land, or of such share or interest in alienated land, as provided under section 114 (2) of the Land Ordinance of Sabah; or

Swk. Cap. 81. (c) where the alienated land is in Sarawak, the transferee shall, as soon as practicable after such order has been made, produce an authenticated copy of such order to the Registrar for the registration of the vesting of such alienated land, or of such share or interest in alienated land, in the transferee, as provided under section 171 of the Land Code of Sarawak.

(9) An order under subsection (1) may relate to any property or business of the transferor in any country, territory or place outside Malaysia and, if it so relates, effect may be given to it in accordance with the law applicable in such country, territory or place.

(10) Without prejudice to subsection (2) (a) and (c), an order under subsection (1) shall be legally binding on all persons to whom the order is directed or who are affected thereby, regardless that the person to whom it is directed or who is affected by it had no notice of any of the circumstances which led to the making of the order, or had no opportunity to make any representation thereon to, or to be heard thereon by, the Bank.

(11) Where, pursuant to subsection (1) (aa) (i), the Bank purchases any shares of a licensed finance company, it shall dispose of any shares it may continue to hold after the order under subsection (1) under which such shares were purchased has been given effect to, and the Bank is satisfied that the circumstances referred to in subsection (1) (a), and the purposes mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, no longer exist.

(12) For the purposes of this section—

- Act 372.* (a) “deposit”, “depositor”, “liabilities”, “licensed finance company”, and “property” have the respective meaning assigned thereto in section 2 (1) of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989, with the definition of “deposit” modified in the manner provided under section 25 (3) of that Act;
- Act 372.* (b) “business” and “security” have the respective meaning assigned thereto in section 50 (8) of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989; and
- Act 372.* (c) “deposit-taker” means (without prejudice to paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this definition) any person who takes, receives, or accepts, a deposit in contravention of section 25 of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 and includes—
- (i) a co-operative society as defined in that Act; or
- Act 81.* (ii) a pawnbroker as defined in the Pawnbrokers Act 1972.

(13) This section shall have full force and effect notwithstanding—

- (a) anything inconsistent therewith or contrary thereto contained in any other provision of this Act;
- (b) anything contained in the written law by or under which the deposit-taker is registered, incorporated, established, appointed or constituted; and
- (c) anything contained in any other written law, other than the Constitution.

* The substitution of this section by section 17 (1) of the Central Bank of Malaysia, Exchange Control, Insurance and Takaful (Amendment) Act 1989 (Act A 737) shall not in any manner or to any extent whatsoever affect the continued validity and operation of any order made by the Bank under this section as it stood before its substitution and such order shall, after the commencement of aforesaid Act, be deemed to have been made under this section as set out under section 17 (1) of aforesaid

Act and shall, accordingly, be given effect to thereunder, and any difficulty arising in this connection may be removed by the Bank making an amendment of that order with the concurrence of the Minister.

Act A737. See s. 17 (2) of Act A 737.

Power to reduce share capital and to cancel shares of financial institution. Act 372. 31c. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any written law or the articles of association of a financial institution, where the Bank has, under section 73 (2) (a) of the Banking and Financial Institution Act 1989 assumed control of and carries on the business of the financial institution and the paid up capital of such financial institution is lost or unrepresented by available assets, the Bank may apply to the High Court for an order to reduce the share capital of such financial institution by cancelling any portion of its paid up capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets.

(2) Where the High Court makes an order referred to in subsection (1) to reduce the share capital of a financial institution, the Court may—

- (a) on the application by the Bank; and
- (b) if, on the expiry of thirty days from the date of any call made by the financial institution on its shareholders to pay on their respective shares, payment on any such shares has not been made, direct that such shares for which payment has not been made be cancelled accordingly.

(3) Where the share capital of a financial institution is reduced pursuant to subsection (1), or any of its shares has been cancelled pursuant to subsection (2), the Bank may cause the memorandum of association of such financial institution to be altered accordingly.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

Act 125. (a) section 64 of the Companies Act 1965 shall, subject to subsection (1) and if the High Court so directs, apply accordingly; and Act 372. (b) “financial institution” means an Islamic bank, a licensed local institution as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989, or an institution in respect of which the Minister has made an order under section 24 (1) or 93 (1) of that Act, respectively.

RELATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT

- Bank as a banker to the Government. 32. (1) The Bank shall act as a banker and a financial agent of the Government.
- (2) Whenever the Bank shall receive and disburse Government moneys it shall keep account thereof without remuneration for such service.
- (3) In any place where the Bank has no branch, it may appoint any banking institution to act as its agent for the collection and payment of Government moneys.
- (4) The Bank may act generally as agent for the Government on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Bank and the Government, where the Bank can do so appropriately and consistently with the provisions of this Act and with its duties and functions as a central bank.
- Temporary advances to the Government. 33. (1) The Bank may grant temporary advances to the Government and the Government is hereby authorised to receive such advances in respect of temporary deficiencies of budget revenue at such rate or rates of interest as the Bank may determine.
- (2) The total amount of advances granted under subsection (1) outstanding shall not at any time exceed twelve and a half per centum of the estimated receipts of Malaysia shown in the statement laid before the House of Representatives pursuant to Article 99 of the Constitution for the Government's financial year in which the advances are granted.
- (3) All advances granted under subsection (1) shall be repaid as soon as possible and shall in any event be payable not more than three months after the end of the Government's financial year in which they are granted; and if after that date any such advances remain unrepaid, the power of the Bank to grant further such advances in any subsequent financial year shall not be exercisable unless and until the outstanding advances have been repaid.
- Issues of policy. 34. (1) The Board shall keep the Minister informed of—
- (a) the monetary and banking policy;
- (b) the policies in respect of institutions in relation to which the Bank is conferred with powers under the Insurance Act 1963, the Islamic Banking Act 1983, the Takaful Act 1984, the

Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 and the Money- Changing Act 1998; and Act 17. (c) the policies in respect of the Exchange Control Act 1953, pursued or intended to be pursued by the Bank.

(2) The Minister may, from time to time, if he disagrees with the Board on any of the aforesaid policies pursued or intended to be pursued by the Bank, issue directives to the Board relating to such policies, and any such directive shall become binding on the Board, which shall forthwith take all steps necessary or expedient to give effect thereto.

(3) If the Board objects to any such directive, the Board may submit its objections and the reasons therefor in writing to the Minister, who shall cause the same, together with his directive, to be laid before the House of Representatives.

PART VII

RELATIONS WITH BANKING AND OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Co-operation with banking institutions and other financial institutions.

35. The Bank shall use its best endeavours in co-operation with other banks in Malaysia—

Note.

- (a) to promote and maintain banking and financial services for the public;
- (b) to foster higher standards of banking and finance in Malaysia.

36. (Repealed).

Recommendations to banking institutions, other financial institutions or persons as specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e).

37. (1) When the Board is satisfied that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of giving effect to the objects of the Bank, the Board may make recommendations to the banking institutions, other financial institutions or institutions or persons as specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) on all or any of the following matters:

- (a) the policy to be followed by banking institutions in relation to the granting of advances and the extension of credit facilities, including the classes of purposes for which advances may or may not be made or credit facilities extended;
- (b) in the case of banking institutions other than Islamic banks, the rates of interest payable to or by, the rates of discount chargeable by, or the rates of commission and other charges payable to, such banking institutions;
- (c) a reserve to be held by each banking institution, other than an Islamic bank, at the Central Bank comprising such amounts expressed as a percentage of such banking institution's sight, savings account, time and other deposit liabilities in Malaysia and such other liabilities as may be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board, whether denominated in Malaysian or foreign currency;
- (d) a reserve to be held by each Islamic bank at the Central Bank comprising such amounts expressed as a percentage of each bank's sight, savings account, investment account, time and other deposit liabilities as may be approved by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board, whether denominated in Malaysian or foreign currency;
- (e) any other matter relating to—

*Act 276.
Act 372.*

- (i) the supervision and regulation of banking institutions and other financial institutions pursuant to this Act, the Islamic Banking Act 1983 or the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989;

*Act 89.
Act 312.
Act 577.*

- (ii) the supervision and regulation of institutions and other persons pursuant to the Insurance Act 1963, the Takaful Act 1984 or the Money-Changing Act 1998; or
- (iii) monetary policy to be given effect to by banking institutions, other financial institutions or other institutions or persons, whether or not such matter is similar to those specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d).

(2) The recommendations made in pursuance of subsection (1) (c) or (d) may specify different ratios of reserves for different categories of banking institutions. The Board may determine the categories by reference to the size or location of such banking institutions or to both, size being measured in relation to the number of branches, any or all categories of assets or liabilities of such banking institution or any combination thereof.

(3) In respect of subsection (1) (a) the Board may, in regard to the advances of such banking institution or each class of purpose for which these advances are made, specify that a deposit or deposits be placed by such banking institution with the Central Bank against such advances at such rates of interest payable to such banking institution as may be determined by the Central Bank.

(4) Where a banking institution is unable to comply with any recommendation of the Board under paragraph (1)(a) (in this subsection referred to as the “defaulting banking institution”) and any such recommendation requires the banking institution to grant advances or extend credit facilities of such proportion or amount of its advances or credit facilities for any particular purpose as set out in the recommendation, the Board may require the banking institution to place a sum on deposit with the Central Bank equivalent to such proportion of advances or credit facilities, free of interest, for such period and on such terms as may be determined by the Central Bank.

Act A1213.

(5) The Central Bank shall have the power to transfer the sums deposited with it by the defaulting banking institution referred to in subsection (4) to another banking institution for such banking institution to grant advances or extend credit facilities for the purpose set out in the recommendation made under paragraph (1)(a) for such period and on such terms as may be determined by the Central Bank.

(6) The Central Bank shall refund to the defaulting banking institution referred to in subsection (4) the deposits placed with it, free of interest, after the expiry of the period determined by the Central Bank under subsection (4).

Recommendations to persons or classes of persons (other than banking institution). 38. When the Board is satisfied that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of giving effect to the objects of the Bank, the Board may make recommendations to such persons or classes of persons (other than banking institution) carrying on business in relation to the receipt of money on deposit from members of the public as may be determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board in relation to the rates of interest payable to or by, or the rates of discount chargeable by, such persons or classes of persons.

Directions to banking 39. (1) When the Board has made a recommendation in accordance with section 37 or 38, the Bank may institutions, etc. subsequently, with the approval of the Minister, issue a direction in writing to any institution or person referred to in section 37 or any person or class of persons referred to in section 38 on all or any of the matters referred to in such section requiring that effect is given to the recommendation within a reasonable time.

(2) The direction issued under subsection (1) in relation to a reserve to be held by a banking institution at the Bank may specify different ratios of the reserve for different categories of banking institutions. The Bank may determine the categories by reference to the size or location of the banking institutions or to both, size being measured in relation to the number of branches, any or all categories of assets or liabilities of the banking institution or any combination thereof.

Saving in respect of sections 37 to 39. 40. Nothing in sections 37 to 39—

- (a) authorizes a recommendation or a prescription to be made or a direction to be given in relation to an advance made or proposed to be made or the extension of credit facilities to a particular person or the rate of interest or rate of discount chargeable to a particular person;
- (b) affects the validity of a transaction entered into in relation to an advance or credit facility or affects the right of any institution or person referred to in section 37 or 38 to recover money advanced or enforce the security given in respect of money advanced.

No discrimination in directions. 41. The Bank shall not discriminate among licensed banks, licensed merchant banks, or licensed finance companies, (as defined in the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989), respectively, or among Islamic banks, in any directions issued under section 39 in regard to the policy to be followed by such banking institutions in granting advances or extending credit facilities or, in the case of banking institutions other than Islamic banks, the rates of interest payable to or by such banking institutions, or the rates of discount chargeable by such banking institutions:

Act 372.

Provided that the Bank may provide in such directions for different classes, categories or descriptions of licensed banks, licensed merchant banks or licensed finance companies, respectively, such different proportions of their deposits as the Bank may specify which may be used for granting advances or extending credit facilities in such different proportions for such different purposes as the Bank may specify, and the Bank may determine such classes, categories or descriptions by reference to the size or location of the banking institution or to both, size being measured in relation to the number of branches, any or all categories of assets and liabilities, of the banking institution, or any combination thereof.

Special loans to banking and other financial institutions. 42. The Central Bank may, if it deems such action necessary to safeguard monetary stability, make a loan or advance to any banking institution or other financial institution, or enter into any transaction for such purposes with any such institutions, which does not involve any element which is not approved by the Syariah, in accordance with the advice of the Syariah Advisory Council, against such form of security as the Central Bank may consider sufficient.

Act A1213.

Clearing Houses and settlement of balances between banking and other financial institutions. 43. (1) In order to facilitate the clearing of cheques and other credit or payment instruments for banking institutions and other financial institutions the Bank shall, at an appropriate time and in conjunction with such institutions, establish a Clearing House in Kuala Lumpur and in such other place or places as the Bank may consider necessary.

(2) A banking institution or other financial institution shall settle, in such manner as the Central Bank may from time to time specify by notice in writing, all balances between itself and any other banking institution or other financial institution arising out of the general clearances effected in Kuala Lumpur and such other places as the Central Bank may specify.

44. (Repealed).
